

We are pleased to present a free community lecture:

Advanced Treatment for Parkinson's
Disease and other
Movement Disorders

Friday, December 3, 2010 at 2pm

Speaker: P. Charles Garell, MD
Director of Functional Neurosurgery,
Associate Professor of Neurosurgery and Neurology,
New York Medical College & Putnam Hospital Center

Dr. Garell is one of only four neurosurgeons in New York to perform deep brain stimulation and Medtronic ITB Therapy for parkinsonism, spinal cord stimulation for pain, and vagus nerve stimulation for epilepsy and depression.

Who Should Attend:

Health care professionals and patients with movement disorders who suffer as a result of Parkinson's Disease, CVA, Brain Injury, Essential Tremors, Spinal Cord Injuries, MS and other neurological disorders.

Location:

1000 High Street, Port Chester, NY 10573

Contact Info:

To register (space is limited), please call Laura Fallon at (914) 937-1200, x242.

Refreshments Will Be Served